Mrs.(?) Cora Cook,
Clinton, Wash.,
U. S. A.

Dear Miss or Madam:

I have received your letter of 17th inst.,
and shall try to answer it before you give up hope.

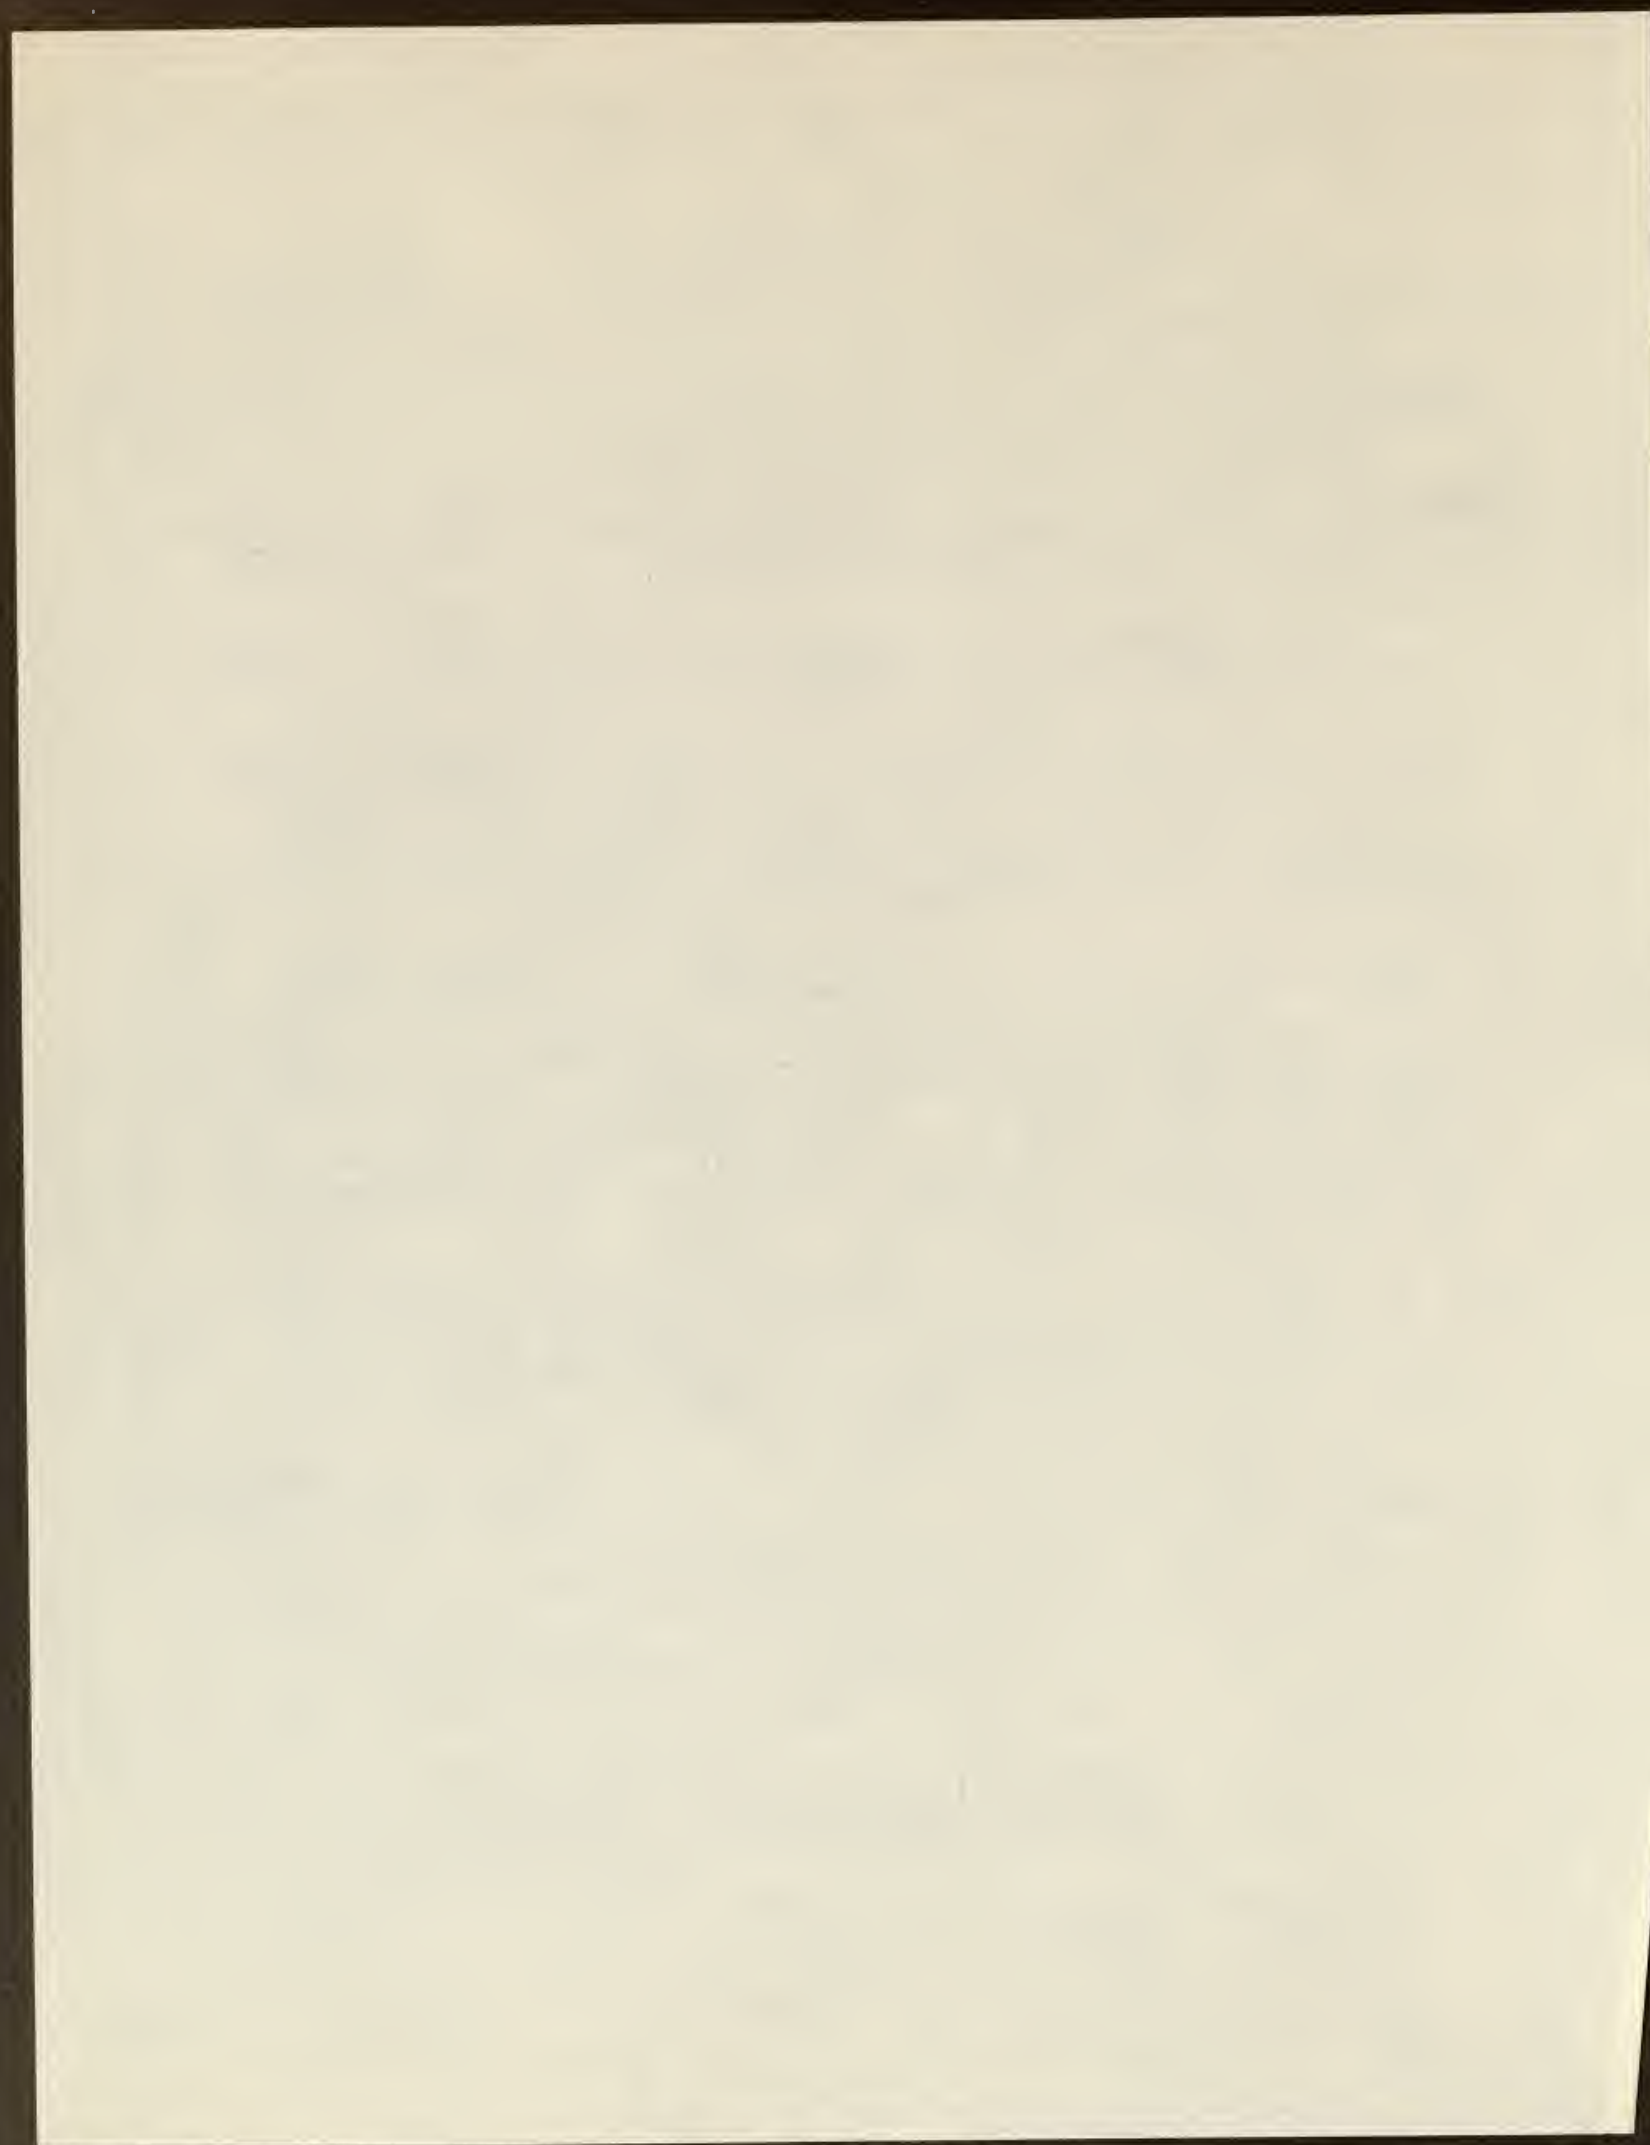

To begin, I find it very difficult to understand exactly what you wish to know. Perhaps that is putting it poorly. What I mean is that you have not given enough details as to generations, birth, marriage and death dates of those persons whom you know. I have heard all these names, and have come across them in the course of searching for other families. However, I have never attempted to develop a genealogical chart for any of these families. May I suggest that you fill in the accompanying chart as far as you can, particularly about those persons in which you are interested, and return, if you wish further information.

As I have indicated, I have come across these names--Seaman, Mallory and Patterson. I know that families of these names once lived about fifty or sixty miles to the east of my home. I have seen a history of that part of the country. It is now very rare and difficult to find, let alone review. However, I know where there is a copy of it which I may be able to borrow. There is also a marriage register, dating from 1801 to 1831. This I might be able to review for you. Then, you having sent what you can, it is almost certain that I can find several generations further back than you can at present go.

As you can readily understand, there will be some expense in this regard--not more than $25.00 or 30.00--in reviewing and co-ordinating all the information. And, if this is agreeable to you, I shall proceed with the work. I am confident that I can find just what you want.

I shall be looking forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

Jan 17, 1963

Dear Sir:

I received your name from Leon Burley who told me you knew something about the Burley history. Do you know anything about the David Seaman's or Huldah Mallory? Where did they come from and the dates?

I am a grand daughter of Mary Seaman Cunningham who was a daughter of David & Huldah Seaman. Leon and I are related because his grand mother and Mary were sisters.

Do you know anything about the Stephen or William Cunninghams? William was Stephen's father. Richard's ^{great} grandmother Sarah Ann Cunningham name. I have a lot of her history but not of the Cunninghams. Could you tell me where I could find out where the Cunninghams come from. As far as I know they come from New York at the beginning of the Revolutionary War as they were loyalists.

Do you know when David & Huldah were born and when they died (the dates) or where I could find this out. We were told they were loyalists also so they were supposed to have come from the states. We had these dates at least my grandmother Mary did at one time but we can't find any of this history that we knew was written down at one time. I wondered if you'd have any of these records.

Could you tell me where I could look for any of these records? Do you know any of the people who live around you (if there are any) who are related to the Seamans or Cunninghams? I know lots of people are not interested in these things. Leon Burley and I are the only ones out here who are very interested in these dates. There are dozens of us all related living out here but none are very interested. In fact they know nothing of the old history of the family. I know a lot by word of mouth but that is all because I asked my grandparents and they told me when I was a little girl.

Does the name Patterson mean anything to you? He is supposed to be in the Seaman line some-where. He might have been in the Mallory line for all I know too. Do you know anything about the Mallorys? If you have any information I'd love to have it.

Thank you.

Cora Cook

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

In your letter of January 1963 you asked for information on Huldah Mallory who married David Seaman about 1800. She was the Daughter of Lemuel 2; Nathaniel and Abia.

There has recently been published a genealogy covering this family and her brother PRICE in and around Meaford Ont. This genealogy is called "The ancestry of Harvey Dunn" and is compiled by A Mrs Luedemann and published by the Pequot Press of Old Chester Road, CHESTER Conn. price 20.00 I have a copy and must say that it is a very well written genealogy. She does not solve the mystery of Nathaniel and Enoch families who came to Mallorytown.

I was not sure that you were still at Bath as you know most genealogical searchers are mostly elderly and are no longer with us.

I was informed a year or two ago that Daniel who came in 1784 and married Elizabeth Randolph was buried in Prince Edward County after 1840.

Hoping you are enjoying good health as I am.

Sincerely,

A. H. Mallory

Dear Sir,-

Your name was given to me as the genealogist of the U. E. L. Association. Bay of Quinte Branch. therefore I am writing to ask whether in your files you have any information of or about Ezra Mallory born - 1782, I think, and came to Canada, probably as a young man, and married a Miss Bristol in Sept 22nd 1803.

If it is negative -

Thanking you

Sincerely yours

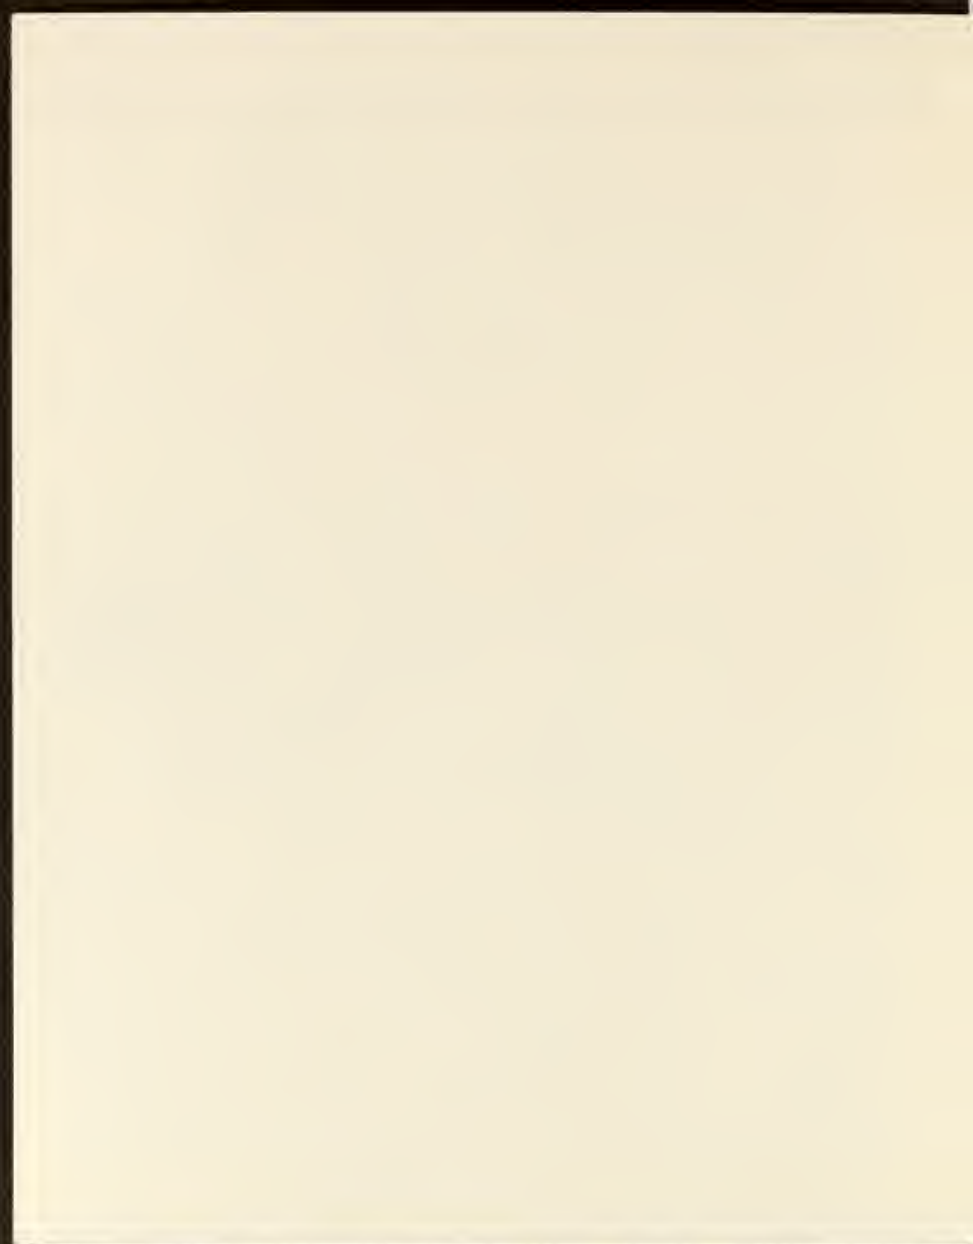

(Miss) Maude E. Mallory

Dear Mr. Mallory:

I think that I had better answer your letter of 15th inst. I shall be looking forward for any information regarding the Randolphs. In this regard, and with respect to the Nathaniel Mallory family, I have this to offer, taken from the Census of New York, 1790:

Clinton County, Plattsburg Town.

Nathaniel Mallory, 6 males over 16, one male under 16, 4 females.

Washington County, Argyle Town.

James Randolph, 2 males over 16, 3 males under 16, 4 females.

These two families, if I am correct, must have known one another in New York State.

I have had other queries regarding the Mallorys of Prince Edward County. I hereby give two addresses. The first wrote to me in Feb., 1961, asking about Ezra Mallory, born 1782, who married a Miss Bristol in 1803. She is

Miss Maude E. Mallory, 93 Coe Mill Drive, Toronto 3, Ont.

I referred her to another Mallory woman who wanted information about the same person. Her address is

Mrs. Nelson B. Mallory, 9201 Shore Road, Brooklyn 9, N. Y.

The early generation of this family seems to be

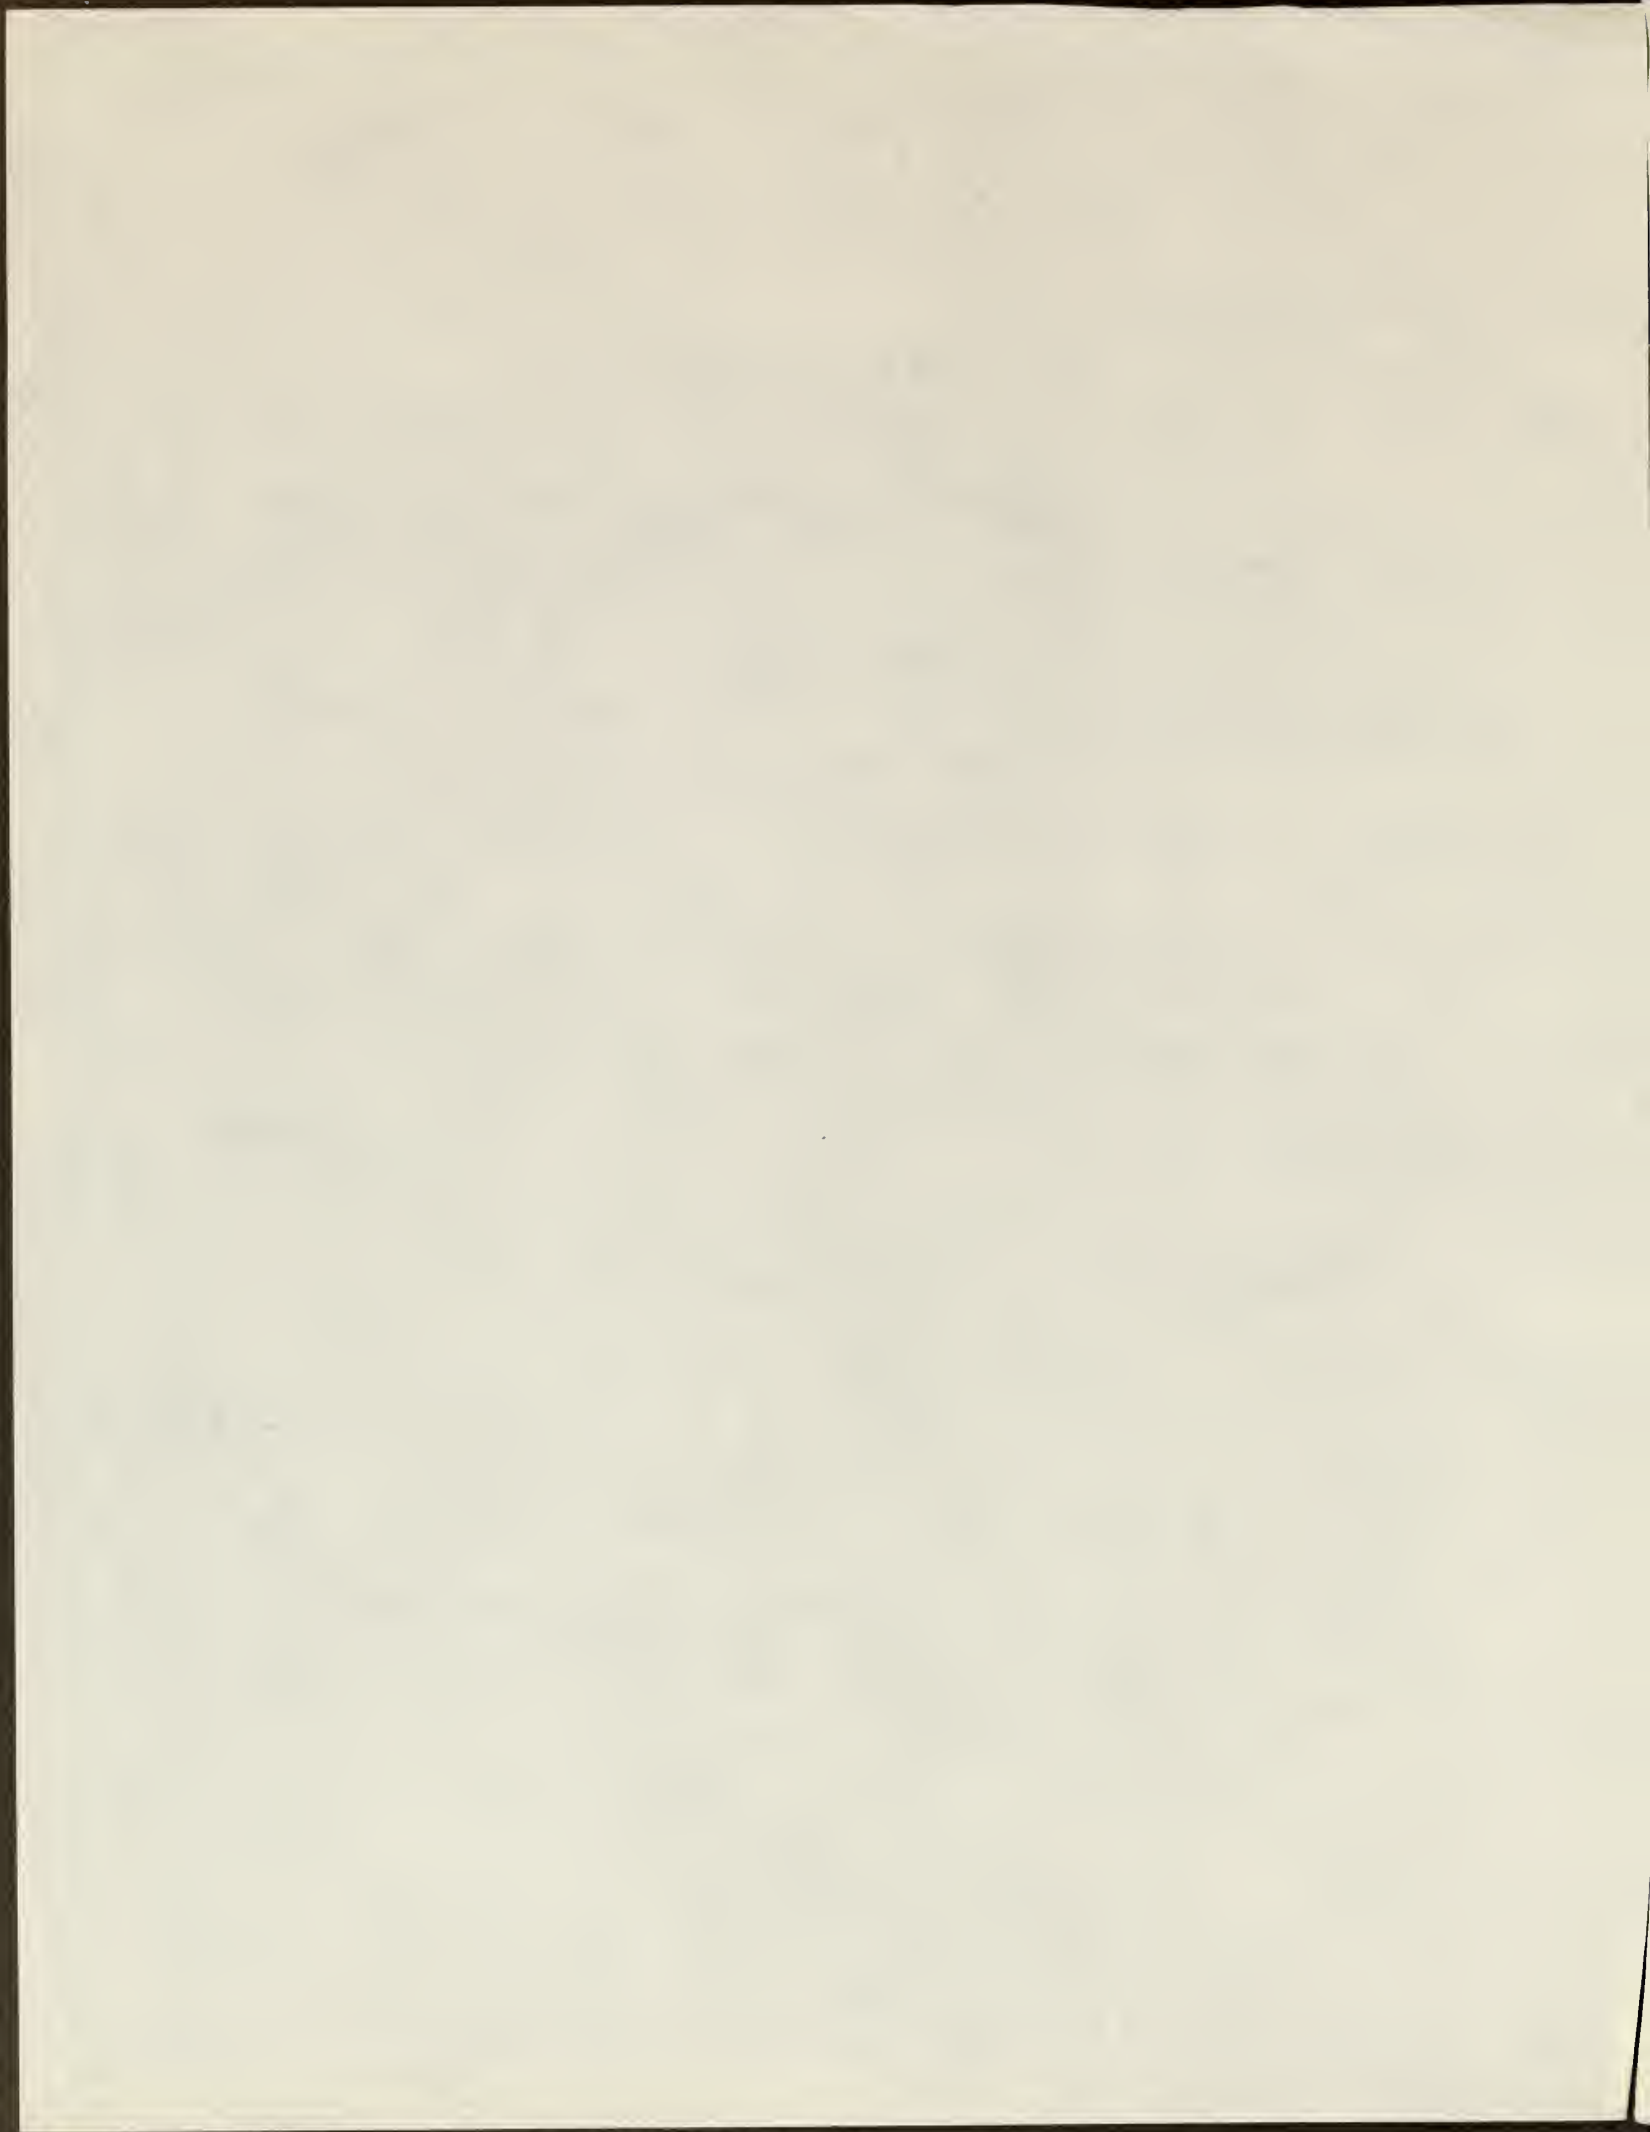

Eliakim Mallory, father of

Ezra marr. 26 Sep. 1803 Philomela Sarah Mary Ann Eliakim Elisha B. Olive
b. Conn. Nancy Bristol
6 Sep. 1782

This is the family which came to Prince Edward County, later moving to Madoc, at least in one branch.

I am in urgent need for a friend any information about a Hulda Mallory who married, about 1800, David Seaman, apparently both of Yonge Township. Can you help us? I shall greatly appreciate anything that you may have on them.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Doctor:

I thank you for your very kind and interesting letter. Really I did not expect very much information but there was a possibility and I am very pleased with the data on Enoch. I had heard at home many times that several Mallorys came to Mallorytown and two stayed for a time and then proceeded to Prince Edward County. Daniels family seems to have disappeared perhaps several were girls, there is lots of data on other Mallory families but all I know about Daniel's family comes from Levitts History of Leeds and Grenville. I have a legend of the family which places Nathaniel and Enoch as brothers with four brothers being killed in the Revolution and one son returning to England, this was supposed to be Peters family but in actual fact was the family of a grandson called Peter who was married to a Beardslee as was Nathaniel.

I could possibly ask many questions but will limit it to one. Do you know of any one who knows about the Mallorys of Ameliasburg? Several years ago there was a Mallory, a minister possibly from there who was making inquiries at home. I am sending you a sketch of my line. Thanking you again and will send any data I find that may give a lead on the Randolphs.

Your note on ENOCH was very interesting especially the ages and heights. They evidently went into the world at a surprising age. This information makes some dates more easy to understand. I have a great deal of data on Enoch and have his line back to Peter (1636) in New Haven Village.

I have a correspondent in Flint Michigan who has spent a great deal of time and money on her line which happens to include the Mallorys, Wickwares Perrys and many others, her name is Laurel Perry McColley.

Dear Mr. Mallory:

Your very interesting letter came along yesterday. Let's thank the shades of our mutual friend, Mrs. Livesay for this privilege of helping one another along lines in which she had a most absorbing interest, namely, family history.

To begin, I must tell you that I do not have much of interest to you on the Mallory family. Back in 1924 I became interested in my own family. From this I spread to members of the Loyalist regiments to which they belonged. Subsequently, I took up the study of all families who settled in the Kingston-Bay of Quinte District. My knowledge of families outside of that area is sketchy, except in a few cases.

I knew that the Mallory family in Eastern Ontario was Loyalist. I have come across the name at times, but never made a point of making notes, except on occasion. In looking over some of my military records I find this which might be of interest. It is taken from the War Office Papers in the Public Archives, Ottawa:

Regiment of Loyal Rangers,

Capt. Jonathan Jones' Co., 1 Jan., 1783.

Brook Mallory, private, aged 37 yrs., 5 ft. 5 in., born in America,
5 years, 6 months service.

I have nothing on your Daniel or his father, Nathaniel. I have seen somewhere, in a witness to a paper or deed, a reference to a Mallory attesting to something belonging to a person from New Milford, Conn. As a large number of our Loyalist families came from that area, I suspect that the Mallorys may also be from there. I usually go to Albany, N.Y., in the Spring, where they have a very large genealogical library. If you do not come on the answer to your problem by then, I can have a look for you. I am sure that there will be something of value to you.

I am very much interested in the family of Daniel's wife, Elizabeth, daughter of a James Randolph. Where, and when were they married? Where did James Randolph live? Do you know anything of his ancestry? My family of Randolphs came from Oneida County about 1806. Three sisters came first, namely, Mrs. Hannah Fraser, Mrs. Anne (or Sarah Anne) Johnston, Mrs. Apphia Perry. Shortly after, the widow of James Randolph, Jr., with four children, followed. My great-grandmother, Ala Randolph, was one of these orphans.

I suggest that you send a skeleton sketch of what you know regarding your ancestors. I always is a great help in discussing problems. I shall give my own on the next page.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in a cursive script. The text is faint and mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. It appears to be a formal or semi-formal communication, possibly dated in the late 19th or early 20th century. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the page.

I shall be interested in knowing the sources of your information covering the period before 1800. I have a great deal of notes on about 300 families of this district. I have also made notes from the military records in the Public Archives. One most prolific source is the Land Bks. of Upper Canada. I also have Carriff's Settlement of Upper Canada.

I shall be looking forward to hearing from you.
If I might have anything of interest, please let me know.

Dear Sir:

In rereading a letter from Mrs Livesay of Erindale of several years ago, I came across your name as a genealogist knowing some of the facts of James Randolph and his daughter Elizabeth, who married Daniel Mallory B Aug 13 1770. Perhaps through your records you could help in the identification of Daniel's father Nathaniel?

In the movement from the States to Canada and the many Nathaniels, identification was lost and nobody seems to be able to place his father definitely. I have a tremendous amount of material both before and after 1780. War records, land sales, and other data from Lines Jacobus, Woods and others.

I am enclosing an addressed envelope for a reply if you have any spare time. Perhaps I have some data that would be of interest to you. Please let me know and I will try to be of help.

Yours truly,

H. L. Mallory

This could possibly be a daughter of Daniel,

There is another Huldah about that time who married Thos. P. Kenyon

There was a David Seaman who drew mail from Mallorytown about 50 years ago.
He was an old man then. He lived at Rockport.
